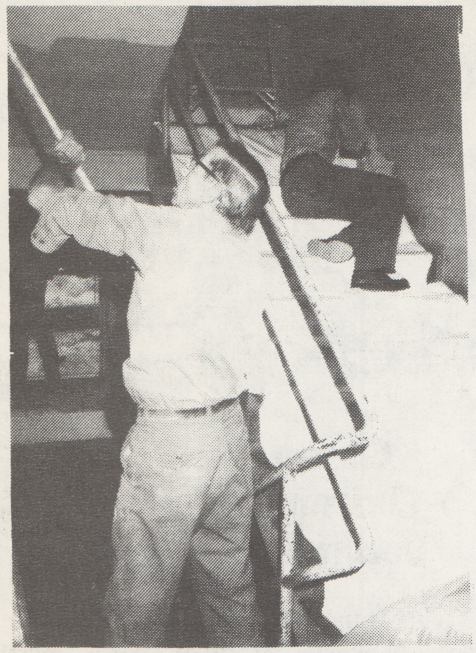
ST. JOHN'S – A FLURRY OF ACTIVITY

Saturday is never a calm day in St. John's Parish because of scheduled Masses morning and evening, confessions afternoon and evenings, Weddings sandwiched in at various times, and the usual number of phone calls and requests.

However, Saturday, December 10th, besides offering the above usual services, saw a number of parishioners on the grounds working in various capacities.

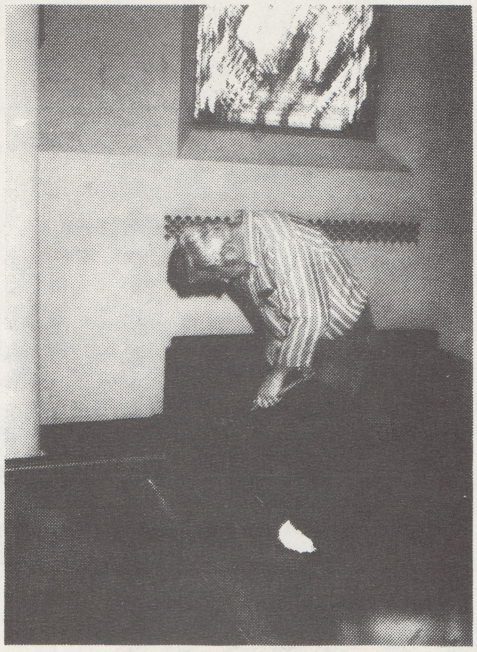


Some members of the painting crew of volunteers were on hand to help with the painting badly needed in the Education Center. Rob Sprague, Rick Sprague, John Thommen, Micky Ichesco, Wayne Jackson, John Romelli, Dennis Conner, Joe Connor (pictured) were organized by Co-Chairmen, Bob Gillman and Ralph Wakely, and coordinated by Adminstration Commission member, Ed Look, were busily painting the stairwell most of the morning and afternoon.

In the same building, members of the Religious Education Classes were making Christmas Cards for the patients at Parkview Convalescent Home so that they would have something to give each one as they went around caroling later in December. Almost 48 lunches were served through the efforts of the Service Commission because so many of the youngsters responded to this united effort to make someone happy during this holiday season.

In the old end of the school, Needham Hall, the First Saturday White Elephant Sale was progressing nicely due to the sales of Adeline Moore and Bea Byrd who worked there throughout the selling period. Mae Hebdidge had previously spent two days sorting, placing, and pricing so that all would be in readiness for Saturday. St. Vincent de Paul coffers became a little over $50.00 richer due to your generosity in bringing your unneeded goods for sales. Prices are good and items are varied.

Next to the sales room, another group of parishioners was busily sorting and packaging clothes to be sent to the Bishop's Relief Services in New York. St. John's parishioners responded handsomely with many articles of clothing which could be used and with care in the volunteering of packing. Those items which were not asked for specifically were taken to the White Elephant Sale and most were sold immediately.



Meanwhile, in church, Bob Groshans and sons, Jack and Glen were working to repair cracks in the pews which have been in need of work for some time.

Adding a little comic relief to the day was a small black and white puppy which someone had abandoned in the school yard and on which the sisters were lavishing tender care until the Sheriff's Department arrived to take the puppy to a proper place.

All in all, the flurry of activity went along easily and seemed to fit into the other scheduled celebrations well. By the time paint brushes were cleaned, boxes tied, articles straightened for the next sale, paste & scissors shelved, many were tired but satisfied that they had done their share of work to help the parish in some way to be the tremendous parish that it is with a spirit of giving that is becoming more contagious with the passing days.

Thank you to all who made the day so full and flourishing!

MUSIC IN THE LITURGY

To appreciate what music adds to liturgy, one has only to think of a liturgical celebration without it. When an austere liturgy consisting only of words, actions, and signs is chosen deliberately, the very absence of music is a powerful symbol. We find it difficult to express joy, thanksgiving, welcome, praise, sorrow and other moods without some kind of musical expression. Religions of every time and place have found this to be so. Music, like poetry, is the language of the heart. It is an essential for wholehearted participation in the liturgy.

It is the love of music and the dedication of St. John's Parish that bring a faithful few to practice each week to lead the music for the worshipping faithful. Of course there may be several different kinds of musical taste in one parish. To accomodate individual taste there is provided types of musical accompaniment - both organ and guitar. Each type of music has its place and speaks to the heart of a percentage of parishioners. Each person can be congratulated for his/her contribution to the parish and his/her generosity in service. A special note of thanks from all the parishioners should go to our 3 organists. Marie Stachlewitz has served St. John's for over 50 years - playing for many Masses and special events. Mel Light plays weekly for the 5 p.m. Saturday Mass and is currently in the process of reconstructing our organ. Dave Schall accompanies the adult choir and meets weekly for rehearsals. Also special mention goes to our lead guitarists, Carol Zakrezewski, who makes the folk Mass possible. Without her generous service to St. John's Parish many Masses this summer would have been left with no variation in accompaniment.

But now where do we stand on actual choir members? We ARE in need of more members for both the Adult Choir and the Folk Group. The Adult Choir meets for practice on Thursday evening at 7 p.m. in Room 9 of the Center. They are in need especially of Tenor voices and could use additional soprano help. The Folk Group desperately needs soprano voices. Practice for the Folk Group is on Monday night at 7:30 in the church. We would like to encourage the high school students to serve the parish by becoming a part of the Folk Group.

Music in the liturgy is supposed to help us communicate and celebrate the gospel of Jesus Christ. Together through our active involvement in the choir, our sharing of instrumental skill, or our full participation in Mass singing, may we say that Christ is alive here at St. John's and wants to be shared.

BAGELS WILL BE SERVED ON THE 4TH SUNDAY MONTHLY

That way the non-sweet-tooth eaters can be satisfied also, and those who like both can enjoy variety. SUNDAY, Dec. 22nd, is the 4th Sunday, so you can expect bagels next week.

We will be serving after the 9:00, 11:00, and 12:30 Masses since many of the parents will be here for the children's program at 12:30 ... see you there????

SENIOR CITIZEN DINNER HELD AT ST. JOHN'S

On Thursday, December 5th, the Senior Citizens of Ypsilanti enjoyed a special evening of togetherness, dinner, and dancing in St. John's Parish Hall. It was the only celebration to be held at St. John's the week of the big snow, but enough spaces were able to be cleared to take care of the majority of cars.

Dan Paffel was chief cook for the occasion with Jim and Cile Soraruf on hand, and Earl Herbert spending the day helping with preparations for the meal. Others who offered their services were Matt Conlon, Mae Hebdidge, Viola Smith, Freda Shock, Nancy Hallman, Mary Ann Montie, Pat Horton, Donnie and Phil Stokes, Myron Welch, Natalie Motto, and Sister. Carol. Youth representatives on hand to help with the setting up, serving or clearing were Cindy Wagner, Karin and Mary Beth Wawrzaszek, Rene and Robyn Ouellette, Suzie Koch, Chris, Mike, Philip, and Monica Soraruf. Young men from Eastern helped in various areas. We are especially grateful to the youth who responded at the last hour when they heard their services were needed.

The profits from the dinner will be used to purchase 2 refrigerators of the type needed in our all-purpose kitchen and which have been made available to us for a very satisfactory sum. The balance will be used to purchase matching sets of sugar/creamers and other small matching items for outfitting the kitchen.

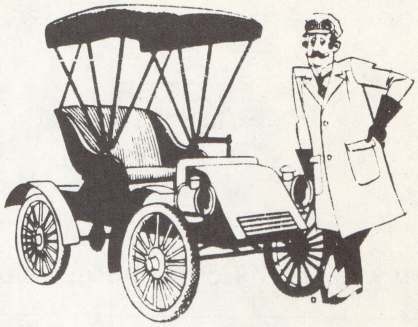
We add a note of gratefulness to Bob and Pat Helm for their donation of a meat slicer for parish use. The women are indeed grateful for this addition which will help to lighten their work in many ways.

Also, we add our words of thanks to Ray and Freda Shock for their donation of a specially engraved cutting knife to be used for receptions. This is another item which will be put to many good uses.



PARKING POSES PROBLEMS

St. John's Parking Lot is sufficiently large enough to accomodate most parishioner cars for Sunday celebrations. For those who come after the lot is filled, please note again that there is a public parking lot directly across the street from St. John's. It can be entered from the Cross Street side through the alley-way and allows for about 25 more cars to park. Rather than blocking in cars because you are parking crosswise behind another car, please use that lot. It takes a very few minutes to get from that lot to the church, but it sometimes saves hours for another parishioner who has been working on a parish project or who has stayed for the Coffee Hour and comes out to find the car has been blocked in. Please do not take for granted that the cars are for Mass parkers only. We are able to offer many services in the church hall on a Sunday morning, but many parishioners do not like to participate because they have frequently found themselves blocked in and do not want to chance this happening again.

Our parking lot is also very clearly marked with lines visible enough that there would be a few more spaces if all parked within the lines. This would also help give us the correct spaces needed if everyone would try to park correctly.

Frequently, the priests are not able to get their cars from the garage because cars are parked cross-wise in the space behind the garage. This area should be kept free for emergencies, hospital calls, etc. We ask that you take the time to park in the correct areas in the correct way so that all can be accommodated weekly and so that the parish workers can carry on without worry.
